

Our “Volunteers” in the WingHaven community... A perfect definition:

“doing the good you can by all the means you can in all the ways you can in all the places you can at all the times you can to all the people you can as long as you ever can”

A deep principle in human nature is the satisfaction of being appreciated.

The success of any group, and the quality of the interaction among members of that group, is linked to the degree individuals feel appreciated.

A Volunteer chooses to give up time....his or her most precious commodity.

Therefore, one must value the Volunteers most precious commodity, and let them know frequently that they are appreciated.

On a larger scale, think of the impact of no Volunteers. Imagine if one day, all Volunteers simply didn't show up. What would our cities, towns, communities, national/state parks, schools, places of worship, hospitals, museums, and libraries look like. What needs would go unmet?

WingHaven has great Volunteers , with many talents to share, and we thank you. If interested in Volunteering, please contact your Voting Member and/or Board Director from the matrix above.

Dale Kling, President
WROA Board of Directors